

CHAIR DISCIPLINE OF FAMILY MEDICINE, FACULTY OF MEDICINE

Memorial University of Newfoundland invites applications for the position of Chair of Family Medicine. This is a leading academic appointment at the rank of Associate or Full Professor in the Faculty of Medicine and the successful applicant will hold a joint appointment with Eastern Health. The position will be available July 1, 2012.

The Discipline of Family Medicine's Residency Training Program is fully accredited by the College of Family Physicians of Canada. This is an outstanding program in teaching, clinical care and research with major expansions in faculty, staff and training sites which include New Brunswick and Nunavut.

The successful candidate will assume the position at an exciting time of expansion of the medical school's undergraduate and postgraduate programs. New teaching facilities are currently being constructed and new faculty positions have been created. This further enhances an expanded comprehensive academic vision incorporating research, teaching and clinical excellence.

Applicants should have senior academic and administrative experience with proven teaching ability and research interests. Certification in Family Medicine from The College of Family Physicians of Canada or equivalent is a requirement and the individual must be eligible for licensure with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Newfoundland and Labrador.

Memorial University is the largest university in Atlantic Canada. As the Province's only university, Memorial plays an integral role in the education and cultural life of Newfoundland and Labrador. Offering diverse undergraduate and graduate programs to almost 18,000 students, Memorial provides a distinctive and stimulating environment for learning in St. John's, a safe, friendly city with great historic charm, a vibrant cultural life, and easy access to a wide range of outdoor activities.

In accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, this advertisement is directed towards Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada. Memorial University of Newfoundland is committed to employment equity.
