Post Graduate Medical Education and Continuing Professional Development national, competency-based Curriculum!

With funding from Health Canada, The Association of Faculties of Medicine of Canada (AFMC) is launching the national, bilingual, and online Postgraduate Medical Education (PGME) and Continuing Professional Development (CPD) curricula.

Building on the 2021 launch of the Undergraduate Medical Education (UGME) curriculum, the PGME and CPD consists of 16 bilingual & interactive competency-based modules to address current educational gaps related to pain management and the opioid crisis in Canada.
